SAVANNAH, Ga. - Four members of the Armstrong Atlantic State University volleyball squad earned All-Southeast Region honors by the American Volleyball Coaches Association, announced today by the organization. Armstrong head coach Will Condon was also named the Southeast Region Coach of the Year.

Senior middle hitter Brittany Wolf, senior setter Ashley Seal, senior outside hitter Amanda Jones and junior outside hitter Jessica Santaniello were all named to the 14-member All-Region squad, giving the Pirates the most All-Region honors among schools this year. All four players will be eligible for All-America consideration, to be announced at the NCAA DII Volleyball Elite Eight on Dec. 6-8.

A native of Bethlehem, Ga., Wolf earns the honor for a second straight season as she led the Peach Belt Conference in hitting, ranking eighth in NCAA Division II with a .392 hitting percentage. The 2012 PBC Tournament MVP and a first-team All-PBC honoree, Wolf also ranked among the league leaders in blocks (0.86 per set).

Seal earns the honor after being an honorable mention All-Region honoree a season ago. The 2012 Peach Belt Conference Player of the Year and Setter of the Year, Seal ranked among the Top 10 in the PBC in hitting percentage (.295) and assists (8.08/set) while leading the league and ranking third in NCAA Division II in service aces per set (0.69). The Orlando, Fla., native was also a Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District III honoree this season.

Santaniello ranked in the Top 10 in the Peach Belt Conference in total kills (396), total digs (401) and hitting percentage (.263) in earning her second straight All-Southeast Region honor. The Boca Raton, Fla., native also earned first-team All-PBC honors this season while passing the 1,000 kill and 1,000 dig plateau during the year.

Jones earns her first career All-Region honor for hitting .306, fifth in the Peach Belt Conference, while also averaging 2.77 kills per set, ranking seventh in the league. The Marietta, Ga., native notched her 1,000th career kill on match point against UNC Pembroke October 26th and earned second-team All-PBC honors this season.

Condon earns his second consecutive AVCA Southeast Region Coach of the Year honors for leading the Pirates to a 32-5 overall record, a 13-1 Peach Belt Conference record and PBC regular season and tournament titles. Armstrong is the top seed in the upcoming NCAA Southeast Regional for the first time in school history and the Pirates are also hosting an NCAA regional for the first time.

Armstrong returns to action on Thursday, November 29th, hosting Belmont Abbey at 7:30 p.m. in the first round of the NCAA Southeast Regional in Savannah.
